

MEDICO

Splash Screen

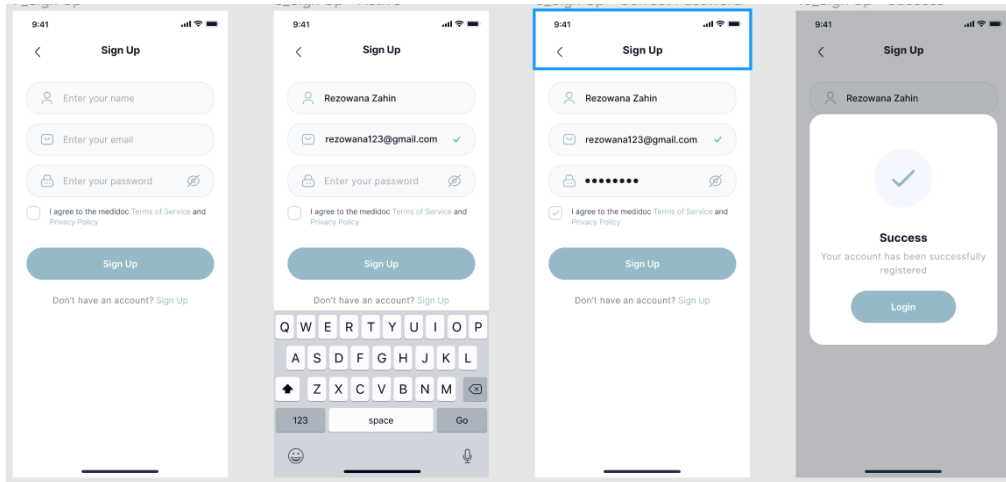

The opening screen of our medico app and description of motive of this app. Then start option with log in and sign up.

Log in and Sign-up Screen

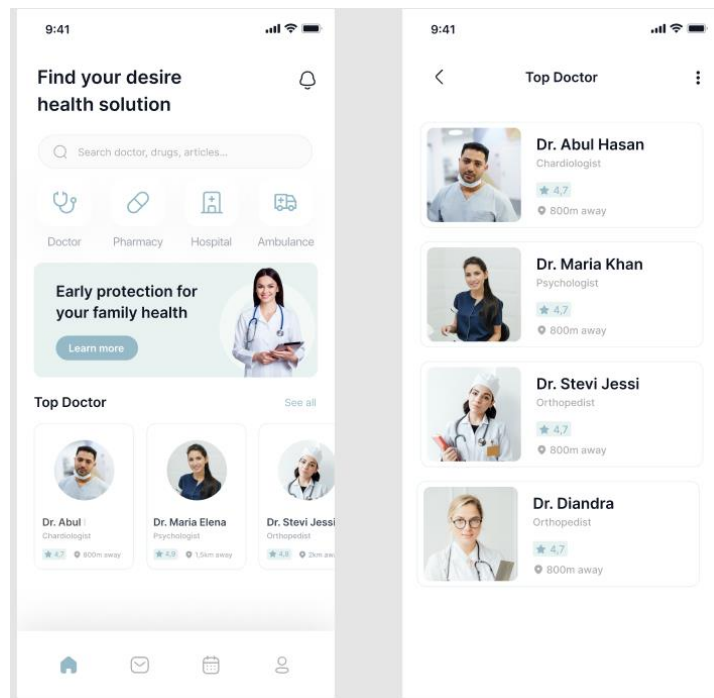

The user who has already created an account those can direct log in in the app by using email and password.

New user can start up our app by sign up option and give their email and password to successfully sign up and enjoy full potential of this app.

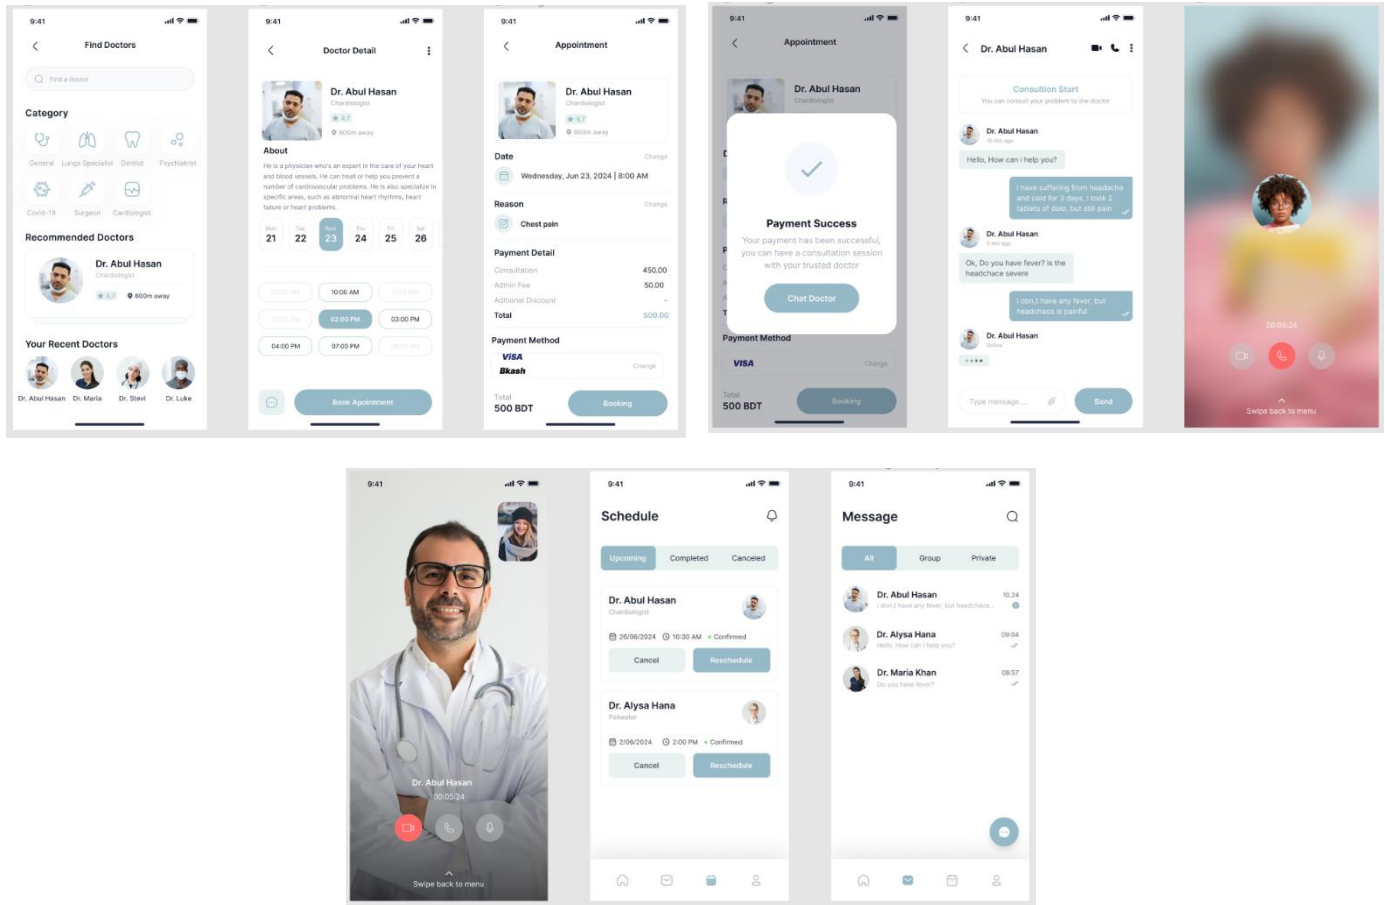

Home Screen

In home screen, at top right corner notification bar for customize notification option. A search bar is available so the user can direct type what and where they direct want to navigate. Quick search option like doctor, pharmacy, hospital and ambulance for navigation. List for the doctor with rating by user who are treated efficiently by their experience. At below, home icon, message icon, calendar and user profile.

Doctor Consultation

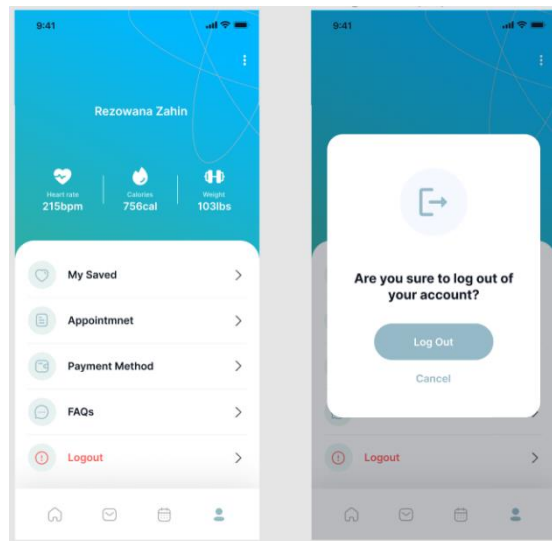

In Doctor Consultation page, first category wise health issues for direct navigation like general, lung specialist, dentist, surgeon, cardiologist, psychiatrist. Doctor recommendation and recent doctor list is given. Then, clicking on selected doctor, it will display doctor's details with schedule, problem details and payment method. After everything is done then successful pop-up message is displayed. Moreover, chat option is given for the patient to communicate with doctor, video call and voice call are available. In any problem issue occurs for the patient to visit with doctor then they can reschedule their day and time.

Online Pharmacy and Ambulance Location

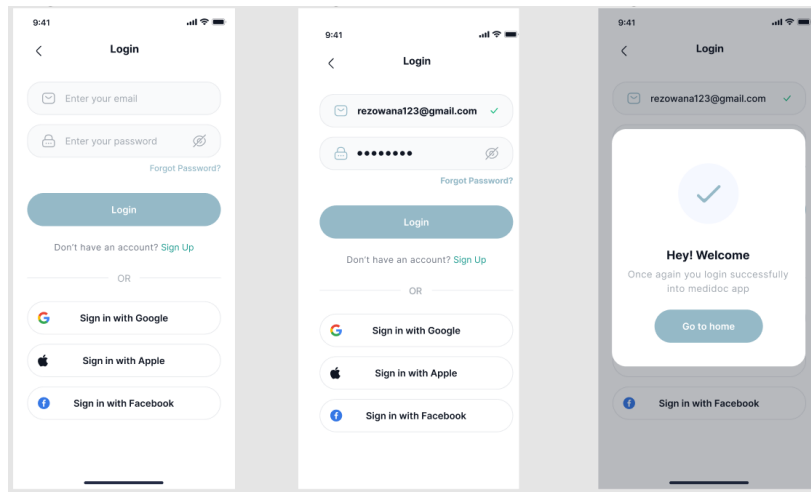

In Online Pharmacy, user can see the details of the medicine with description, quantity for medicine and price is given and can buy online with their desired medicine and use payment method to pay. After paying successfully, success pop-up message displayed on screen with back to home button. GPS is available to find out ambulance near user's location.

User Profile

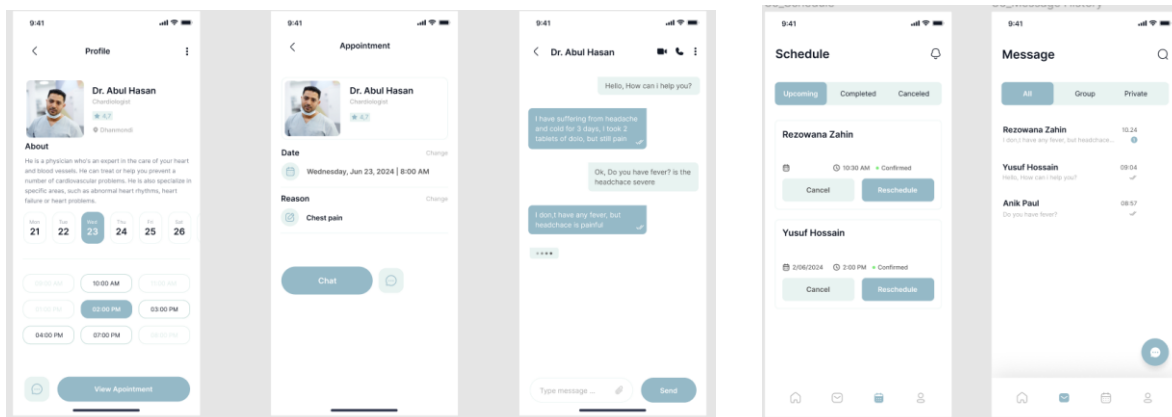

The user profile, they can see their saved things at my saved option. Their appointment details where patients had before and still having now to visit doctor. Payment method is given so that user can see what payment option are available. FAQs option is given so that user can check their what common question is asked. At last, if user want to log out they can do it by log out option.

Doctor Log in Profile

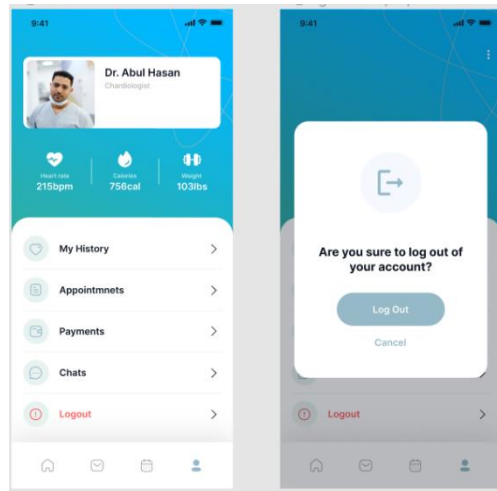

Doctor log in page, they can log in through Google, Apple, or Facebook.

Doctor's Interface

Doctor can check which patients have taken appointment with which health issues and can chat with patients. They can see their upcoming schedule of upcoming patients.

Doctor log out Profile

Doctor log out profile. They can check out their patient's appointment, history from my history option and can-do chats in chats option. Doctor can check out their payment history. And log out through log out option if they want to do so.